Upcoming Train the Trainer Events:

National O&M Service Provider Train-the-Trainer

June 4-6, 2008

Kingston, RI

Delegates of member institutions of the Consortium of Institutes for Decentralized Wastewater Treatment (CIDWT) are invited to participate in the third Train the Trainer Academy for the National Operation and Maintenance Service Provider Program. This Academy is designed to present nationally reviewed, standardized training materials to instructors and assist them in sharpening their training skills. Participants will learn the most effective way to present the materials to O&M service providers in their respective areas. The program will include three days of classroom and field instruction by members of the project writing team.
